

Thursday, January 17, 2008

PhillyCarShare adds Penn to list of partners

Philadelphia Business Journal

PhillyCarShare said Thursday that it is adding the University of Pennsylvania to its college partnerships.

PhillyCarShare said it will put 40 vehicles on or near the Penn campus in West Philadelphia. Other campuses where the organization has programs include Bryn Mawr College, Chestnut Hill College, Drexel University, Temple University and Thomas Jefferson University.

PhillyCarShare clients rent cars by the hour or by the day. The nonprofit says it has cars in 200 neighborhoods in the Philadelphia area.